■ TO COINCIDE with the 125th anniversary year of the First Zionist Congress, the Begin Heritage Center will host the launch of Theodor Herzl Zionist Writing within the framework of English language events that will be conducted at the Begin Center. Theodor Herzl Writings, a three-volume work including his personal diary, essays and plays, was edited by Prof. Gil Troy, a weekly columnist with The Jerusalem Post, and is the first publication from the library of the Jewish People.

The launch, on Sunday, November 27, will be moderated by Troy, who will be joined by various guests to discuss Herzl as a historical and Jewish figure, and the impact of his ideas on contemporary Israel.
